

January 1, 2018

Greetings!

AAA South Jersey Driving School is proud to announce the continuation of our high school scholarship program for 2018.

The enclosed application spells out the requirements, this year's topic and the application deadline.

This is an ideal way for high school seniors living in, or attending school, Camden, Gloucester, Cumberland or Salem County to get their creative writing skills flowing and compete for a $2,500 scholarship to be used toward any two- or four- year accredited educational institution.

Over the past 11 years we have experienced an exponential increase in applicants and would hope that you encourage your seniors to participate. True, the money is important, but so is the experience!

Students may also download an application at www.AAA.com/scholarship. We encourage you to post the application on your school's website as well so that students have easy access to it. Should you have any questions regarding this exciting opportunity feel free to call us at 856-679-2655. We look forward to another successful program and hope to have your support.

Sincerely,
